Faculty Show

The Faculty —

Miss Hamilton signs up another student at semester registration.

A history of the Martins and the Coys by the real McCoys.

The devil himself—Dr. Sheppard.

A speech course is explained by Miss Kiekenapp. That little bunch of sweetness, Mr. Blair, is quite a songbird.

The Floradora girls present a tender ballad.

Senior Class

This year has been a year that will forever live in the memories of the seniors. . . Recognition day and the debut of the caps and gowns. . . The Senior Tea ably managed by Harriet Scott. . . Senior Cut Day in St. Louis. Jean Zilavy reigned at the Senior Ball, "Candlelight." Jean Hagen Wolf was chairman. . . The traditional serenade through the dorms on Thanksgiving morning. . . The Senior coffees and breakfasts. . . They guarded the grass jealously and as a result the campus was beautiful for Commencement. . . As a fitting climax to a wonderful year came the May Day activities planned by Barbara McCord including the May Day Dance. . . And on May 30 they donned their caps and gowns for the last time to receive their diplomas.

Cap and Gown

This year the students again hurried back from the Last Chapel to see the Cap and Gown Ceremony on the front steps of Old Main. The retiring seniors, Doris Cooley, Margaret Flynn, and Elizabeth Lugg welcomed the new members into the honorary society. Doris, a mathematics major, was very busy during the year being the president of the Students Association; Margaret acted as president of the Phi Nu Society and was an art major; and Liz, a history major, was the judicial director of the Students Association for the year.

Seated: Jacobs, Brewer, Melvin, Daker, Beyrer.

Standing: Fallers, Paulson.

Graduate School

The MacMurray Graduate School is now in its sixth year with Dr. Henry M. Halverson as director of the school. He has watched the school grow until it now offers advanced work in many fields.

The students working for their M.A. in psychology are: Frances Beyer, Jeanne Fallers, Irene Feltman, Jane Shannon, and Jean Waldvogel. Those working for their M.Ed. degrees are: Mary Beyrer, Joan Daker, and Fayette Paulson. Mary Brewer, Margery Jacobs, Virginia Lemme, Marcia Melvin, and Martha Stark are working for their masters in psychology, working with the handicapped.

Junior Class

In September the Juniors started the year off with enthusiasm in greeting their sister class. Coffees every week for the freshmen were under the watchful eyes of San Kirchoff and Jan Gustafson. They had a holiday on Senior Cut Day, taking advantage of all the senior privileges. The Junior Prom, "Enchantment," was managed by Peggy Lou Smith. Jimmie Laningham was princess and Dot Abbott and Jane Karraker were her attendants. Bunny Wiebmer, with her committee, planned the school directory. On Easter morning they gave their traditional serenade through the dorms. "Every Day's a Holiday," the class project, was given April 30 under the direction of Jody Bleeker. At the last chapel they solemnly took the place of the seniors.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomores welcomed the freshmen in September as S. O. S. counselors. Then came initiation with Chip Cresswell, Black List Chairman. Weekly coffees planned by Charlie Evans were held in Harker Lounge. In November they gave their dance for the freshmen. In February they gave their annual project under the leadership of Bobby Meyers. Jo Shade was Chairman of the Sophomore Dance, "Ballerina Ball." Pat Seibel led their serenades. And now, looking forward to next year, they leave for vacation with big plans as future Juniors.

Freshman Initiation

The clever theme of "Kangaroo" was used for freshmen initiation this year. Through initiative and originality there appeared on the campus one day, hordes of spotted, pouched, hopping, human replicas of kangaroos. After weeks of wearing green ribbons, the climax had arrived. It was a merry day for the Sophomores who were treated with goodies and poetry at their command. Weary but happy Freshmen presented their own song as they burned the tattered green ribbons that evening.

What a sad sight are blacklisters, Jane and Mary.

Yes, Sally, home is still thinking of you.

Marilyn delivers a note to her Heart Sister.

Whee! Audrey got a package at the P. O.

Lucia at the library windows.

Activities

Society Rush Captains.

Smith, Wolfe, Kelly, Zilavy, Berry, Brotherson, Lessel.

Belles Lettres Society

Their traditional enthusiasm seasoned by the "New Look" of the formal rush party started B.L. off on their ninety-sixth year. Phyl Wolfe led the events up to the pinning of the yellow and white ribbons on the beaming pledges. From then on Leah Geil and Lois Carbon directed the future actives in their duties, which included a Hallowe'en costume party, until their memorable initiation. As a follow-up Ferol Vaughn chose "Bandbox" for a rush theme second semester. The members supplemented these activities with a Christmas serenade led by Kathie Mulcahey and the annual alumnae coffee, made a big success by Thyra Davis.

Phi Nu Society

Girls bound together by the "blue and blue" aided their rush captains, Peg Smith and Jean Zilavy, to make the musical parties, "Symphony" and "Jam Session", a huge success. In November the members laughed themselves hoarse watching the pledges cut-up at their Hillbilly party for the actives. Jane Olander acted as mother of this lively group. When 1948 rolled around, we saw Joan Johnson busily organizing second semester rushing; after the traditional chain to Ham's she turned the pledges over to Mary Mallers. In the spring, when Dad graced the campus, Virginia Davisson led the Dads and daughters in a moonlight serenade. Another joyful Phi Nu year was brought to a sad close at the Spring Banquet.

Lambda Alpha Chi Society

All the joys and pleasures of a sisterhood are realized by the members of Lambda. None of their deeds were history changing, but they will be remembered forever by the girls who did them. A mark was made in Lambda history when they changed their name from Lambda Alpha Mu to Lambda Alpha Chi. Among their activities of the year their interest and participation in scouting stands out. . . .Ruby McHugh and Carol Dick acted as leaders of troops. The girls' interest in music can be seen in their theme choice for parties. In September they entertained rushees at two parties, "The Last Time I Saw Paris" and "Sidewalk Cafe" with Val Berry and Pat Kelly as rush captains. In May they closed with a farewell banquet.

Theta Sigma Society

Theta Sigma rush parties, guided by Dorothy Brotherson and Mary Ann Lessel, started the year which was later filled with Theta doings. The weeks of pledge duties with Mary Louisa Nies as captain of the Thetas-to-be were climaxed by a clever pledge party each semester. Serenading, cabin-partying, breakfasting, and scavenger hunting built up to the annual alumnae coffee in April and the formal banquet in May. Jo Engeswick acted as chairman of the formal coffee. During the year, Doris Gustin edited several issues of the Theta Newsletter. At the end of the first semester, Jane Sellers took over the presidency of Theta Sigma which had been served by Mary Lemon, who graduated in January.

Inter-Society Council

The inter-society council is made up of the president, vice-president, and two other representatives from each of the four upperclass societies. It is the aim of the council to promote a good spirit between the societies and to direct the plans for rushing. They plan dates for social affairs and settle the major issues concerning all four societies. This year each society chose skits from their pledge parties and combined them for an inter-society party with lots of fun and refreshments following. A cabin party in the spring was a big success. Mrs. Hawkins is the adviser to the group.

Alpha Kappa Sigma Society

With the aim of promoting loyalty, friendship, and service, Alpha Kappa Sigma Society, sponsored by Janet Gustafson, spent many busy hours at various activities. Initiation of officers at the beginning of the year found Pat Baskett as president; Rosemary Finger, vice-president; Lorraine Casey, secretary; Nancy Nelson, treasurer; and Louann Miller as recorder. The society's one-act play was "Wurzel Flummery." The members attended cabin parties in the spring and fall, gave a faculty coffee, and had a Christmas party in Jane Lounge.

First Row: Quandt, Carter, Ekos, Krodel, Beckman, Rhodes, Holcombe, Wass.

Second Row: Pinkerton, Rasmus, Fetta, Finger, Casey, Baskett, Miller, Nelson, Ashton, Redmon, Baker.

Fourth Row: Yamamoto, Rosenbury, Blankinship, Snyder, Miller, Scott, Hogan, Trullinger, Korty, Johnson, Dolan.

Delta Theta Nu Society

Virginia Davisson, acting as sponsor of Delta Theta Nu, aroused in members the enthusiasm which they carried with them throughout the year. They chose Dolores Walder as their president; Shirley Porter, vice-president; Sally Pierce, secretary; Ann McClelland, treasurer; and Patricia Hunt, recorder. Frances McClelland, as chairman, did a great deal to make the faculty coffee a success. Besides doing the jobs well this society showed a good example in the accomplishment of the freshmen society's aim "to make friends". This was accomplished by parties such as the cabin party they had in April. Activities for the year came to a happy climax with a successful banquet held in April, for which Barbara Olson served as chairman.

Epsilon Kappa Phi Society

Ann Bacon led the Epsilon Kappa Phis during the year. The other officers were: Jeanne Berwick, vice-president; Luella Nicholson, secretary; Jean McCosker, treasurer; Virginia Brown, recorder. Jayne Maglaris was in charge of the faculty coffee in January. Other activities of the society included a one-act play, "The Bohemian Shawl", directed by Carolyn Kirkwood, which won first place in the contest, a cabin party, and a banquet in April. Ann Roberts was the sponsor.

Kappa Sigma Theta Society

Under the sponsorship of Marylou Elmore, Kappa Sigma Theta got started in a very successful year by electing Patricia Ivy, president; Betty Hollingsworth, vice-president; Dorothy Jones, secretary; and Jane Pickering, treasurer. Ferol Vaughn directed the hilarious play "The In-Laws" which offered much amusement to theater-goers. In the spring they entertained the faculty with a formal coffee, Beverly Klove as chairman. The events of the society were brought to a close at a formal banquet held in April.

Phi Tau Epsilon Society

After the organization meeting early in the fall, members of Phi Tau Epsilon, with other societies, enjoyed refreshments in the Hub during a social hour. The officers chosen were Dorothy Monson, president; Marion Brink, vice-president; Grace Sitter, secretary; Carolyn Jack, treasurer; and Dixine Verstegen, recorder. The society's many activities were under the direction of Virginia Murphy. These activities included "The Soul of a Professor" as the one-act play, the faculty coffee, Christmas caroling with the Y.W. and a Christmas party, a cabin party and picnic.

Phi Kappa Delta Society

Varied social activity was enjoyed by Phi Kappa Delta during the past year. The officers of the society were president, Barb Senne; vice-president, Joyce Renfro; secretary, Mary Lavery; treasurer, Orra Mager; and recorder was Audrey Fromknecht. Leah Geil sponsored the society. Formal initiation and installation of officers was held soon after the organization of the society. Then followed attendance of a Sunday Service at Grace Methodist Church with breakfast at the Dunlap, a Christmas party, the faculty coffee, the one-act play, "Good Night, Please", and a tri-society picnic at the cabin rounded out a busy year.

Students Association

We are all proud of our own student government. Every effort is made to make each girl feel she has the right to help legislate and to be an active member of the association. The Mid-West Student Government Conference was held at MacMurray this year. The officers of S.A. were: Doris Cooley, president; Elizabeth Lugg, judicial director; Georgia Warton, S.O.S. chairman; Carol Smith, vice-president; Dorothy Garner, secretary; Charlotte Erb, treasurer; Jean Scammon, president of off-campus houses; Audrey Pittman and Katherine Lockridge, presidents of Harker and Main; and Betty Butler and Jane Pickering, freshmen representatives.

The MacMurray Young Women's Christian Association sponsored its usual variance of activities this year under the leadership of Betty Davis. Activities of the Y. W. C. A. included the Thanksgiving tea dance, the old clothes drive, gifts for children, Heart Sister Week, distribution of baskets for underprivileged families, Christmas caroling, and several student parties. Other officers included Dorothy Armitage, vice-president, Yvonne Schroder, secretary, and Janet Gustafson, treasurer.

Red Cross

Red Cross activities during the year included a party for crippled children, a musical show of Mac talent at the State Hospital, and the annual membership drive in March. The organization also mailed Christmas packages to men overseas.

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club, or I. R. C. is the group on campus which sponsors the development of interest in the world around us. The group meets every month to discuss the various problems which are currently in the news. The members take turns presenting the various viewpoints of each problem. President of the club this year was Joan Engeswick. Dr. Alfred J. Henderson was the sponsor. The other officers were: Norma Mason, vice-president; and Jean Vogele, secretary-treasurer. Margaret Zipprodt was secretary-treasurer for the first semester. During the first semester the group also sponsored weekly news roundups, which were open to both faculty and students.

Front Row: Neureuther, Mason, Engeswick, Mallers.

Second Row: Sturm, Keller, Vogele, Nichols, Richardson, Wheller.

Third Row: Glossop, King, Kelly, Erb, Zipprodt.

Association for Child Education

The MacMurray College Association for Childhood Education, which is a branch of the national A.C.E., is made up of kindergarten-primary majors and others interested in the education of young children and the subsequent raising of the teaching standards. This year Joyce Bailar served as president; Barbara Wiebmer, vice-president; and Jane Hallows acted as secretary-treasurer. A cabin party opened the year's activities in the fall. Carol Smith acted as chairman of the kindergarten operetta sponsored by the organization. The year was climaxed by a breakfast given by Miss Ellen Nudd, sponsor of the club, in honor of the seniors.

First Row: North, Lauer, Kann, Nelson, Smith, Geil.

Second Row: Kenetzer, Lanningham, Wiebmer, Bailar, Hallows, Zipprodt, Platt.

Fourth Row: Wiese, Patton, Kington, Goldstein, Warton, Griffith.

Tironian Club

The Tironian Club began activities of the school year with a coffee for new members in order to acquaint them with the dual purpose of the organization: to promote interest in the business world and to awaken a social spirit among club members. The winner of the LaRue White Memorial Cup for highest grades in the business department was Lorraine Casey. Julia Underwood was chairman of the annual banquet. Dorothy Frazier served as president with Mary Nutt, vice-president, Ann Mellinger, secretary, and Barbara Selders, treasurer.

First Row: Heuring, Perrin, Elwell, Ledbetter, Ingersoll, Travis.

Second Row: Kluessner, McCullugh, Harris, Miss Mate Giddings, Stanger, Berglund, Montgomery.

Third Row: Street, Nelson, Murphy, Sprout.

Fourth Row: Trullinger, Levi, Ingram, Stuart, Leaverton, Leo, Cluver, Shetler, Veath.

Home Economics Club

Monthly meetings of the Home Economics Club were held during the year under the guidance of Miss Mate Giddings for the majors and minors in the field of home economics. Purposes of the club members were twofold: to learn more about their chosen field and to become better acquainted with everyone in the department. Officers included the following students: Margaret Harris, president, Marie Stanger, vice-president, Winifred Berglund, secretary, and Barbara McCullugh, treasurer. Club members wrapped Christmas gifts for needy families, and concluded the year with an open house for all high school seniors from Jacksonville and surrounding towns who were interested in the field of home economics.

Jacksonville Club

Barbara Hopper served as president of the Town Girls' Club this year and was aided by the following officers: Carolyn Kirkwood, vice-president; Marion Summers, secretary; Dorothy Goebel, treasurer; and Roberta Winstead, program chairman. Dr. Elsa P. Kimball acted as club sponsor. Activities of the club included a "Pink Lightning Ball" in the spring with Jane Lonergan as chairman, a Christmas party, and several other social functions. Through this organization, town girls feel closer to MacMurray, even though they do not live in the dorms.

First Row: Sturm, Goebel, Hopper, Dr. Elsa P. Kimball, Kirkwood, Summers.

Second Row: Welch, Elledge, German, Noudett, DeFrates, Doolin, Phalen, F. Lane, M. J. Lonergan.

Fourth Row: Johnson, Pierce, Tankersly, Lavery, Norris, Holle, Winstead, Foster, M. Elledge, Smith.

Scribblers Club

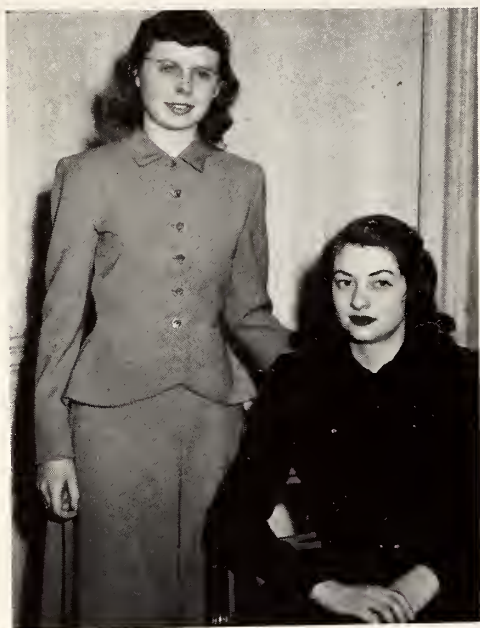

The Scribblers Club, which meets twice a month to criticize the original manuscripts of its members, has as its aim the encouragement of creative writing in its many styles and forms. This year Eleanor Adams served as president; Patricia Heiken, vice-president; and Nancy Williams, secretary-treasurer. New members were elected each semester on the basis of their tryouts. Each year the club designs and sells Christmas cards, gives an open meeting and publishes The Inkspirations. The contest for the Inkspirations is open to the entire student body. This year Barbara Lewis edited the magazine and Muriel Knudson acted as business manager. Miss Dorothy Burrows is the sponsor and adviser of the club.

First Row: Foster, Brokaw, Grimm.

Second Row: Butler, Heiken, Adams, Williams, Knudsen.

Third Row: Craven, Bradley, Gustin, Murphy.

Illiwoco Staff

These were the girls who rushed around with photos in their hands and ideas in their heads. All this effort was put forth to bring you an Illiwoco that we hoped you would wish to cherish through the years. The Editorial Staff under the guidance of Mrs. Hawkins worked harmoniously with the Business Staff, who had Mr. Gibson as an advisor. Phyllis Griffen was Editor-in-Chief of the Editorial Staff with Martha Moon, Assistant Editor; Janice Rudolph, Society Editor; Ann Roberts, Assistant Society Editor; Mary Ann Lessel, Literary Editor; Patricia Vine, Photography Editor; Mary Henson, Index Editor; and Rose Marie Nelson, Assistant Index Editor. The Business Staff was composed of Jane Trimmer, Business Manager; Julia Underwood, Assistant Business Manager; Dorothy Goebel, Advertising Manager; Jane Lonergan, Assistant Advertising Manager; and Joan Llewellyn, Circulation Manager. Whenever you saw one of these girls you probably were dismayed by her jargon of engravers, printers, binders, and copy, but this was all part of the job of publishing a yearbook. The girls on the Business Staff were steeped in weighty monetary problems, and they spent many an afternoon visiting prospective advertisers. We enjoyed our work and we sincerely hope you like the 1948 Illiwoco.

The 1948

Greetings Editorial Staff

The editorial staff of The Greetings offers opportunities for varied newspaper writing to any college student with journalistic talent or tendencies. The Greetings is a weekly publication which has won All-American at national press conventions through several years.

Peggy Craven was editor-in-chief with Mary Lorraine Kangus working as copy-editor for the first semester. They attended the national press convention held in Minneapolis, Minn.

Second semester saw Mary Kangus in the editor's chair and Doris Gustin and Barbara Lewis acting as co-copy editors. They were delegates to the state press convention held at Monticello, Illinois.

First Row: Busby, Hasselbacher, Lessel, Gustin, Williams, Mason, Elwell.

Back Row: Wood, Kerr, Bradley, Burnett.

Greetings

The Greetings business staff was under the leadership of Barbara Selders during the first semester. Mary Rafferty and Nancy Jo Wise served as co-advertising managers. Mary Rafferty acted as Business Manager second semester assisted by Dorothy Jones and Jean Martin, advertising managers. The business staff is in charge of the sale of all advertising and the circulation of the paper. The Greetings' Snow Ball, an informal Christmas Dance, was under the direction of Barbara Selders and was given in the social room of Main Hall.

Little Theatre

MacMurray Players and N. C. P.

The MacMurray Players worked in conjunction with the National Collegiate Players to bring dramatic entertainment to the campus. The theater was opened with two frolicking one-acts, Still Alarm and Antic Spring. A library reading was given and Jane Lonergan directed the inspiring Christmas play, The Alien Star. Of course, no one can forget the two major productions, Rossam's Universal Robots and Blithe Spirit. Mac Players and N.C.P., busy as they are with their initiations and all, found time to actively sponsor and participate in all these events. In the spring the two lone N.C.P.'s, Carol Roach and Betty Davis initiated in the traditional manner seven deserving players: Eleanor Adams, Jean Collins, Carolyn Kirkwood, Jane Lonergan, Ferol Vaughn, Mary Ann Mittelstaed, and Jane Olander. These girls merited this honor for their direct and active interest in the theater.

Among the Artists

Sculpture and life drawing are included in an art major's curriculum.

The Art Department

Mr. and Mrs. Guy help develop the creative and contemporary spirit of the students.

Each senior student selects and individually exhibits pieces from her four year's work as an art major.

Problems in air brush, lettering, poster design, and fashion illustration are part of the commercial phase of art.

Mrs. Cleeland holds classes in elementary design, costume design, and interior decoration.

Fourth Row: Getz, Blaser, Mohn, Schlitz, Meislewitz, Neuschafer.

Band

The college band gives an opportunity to student musicians at MacMurray and Illinois Colleges to become members. This organization aids in the development of musical talent with a wide range of band literature and full band instrumentation. The band appeared at campus sings, and pep rallies. It also gave a combined concert at Dad's Day with the Madrigal. In February the band and choir presented a concert and in May the band joined Madrigal for another concert. Dorothy Bain served as president and was assisted by Susan Stuhler as vice president; Audrey Pittman, Secretary; Pat Gerhold, publicity; and Charlyne Koch and Norma Neuschafer, librarians. Mr. Henry E. Busche was the director.

Choir

The MacMurray College Choir sings at the weekly chapel services under the capable direction of Mr. Henry Busche. The annual formal concert was presented in February. They also sang in the dining hall on Thanksgiving and Dad's Day, plus Baccalaureate and Commencement. This year the choir appeared in Springfield, White Hall, Quincy, Pittsfield, Mattoon, Sullivan and Shelbyville, Illinois, and Kirkwood and Clayton, Missouri. They also broadcasted over KSD and were interviewed over KMOX in St. Louis. The officers were president, Ferol Vaughn; vice-president, Mary Louisa Nies; secretary, Phyllis Wheeler; treasurer, Pat Miller; business manager, Mary Jane Benscoter; robe mistress, Virginia Vaughan; publicity chariman, Nan Williams; librarians, Jean Hutcheon, Betty Ayers, Kathleen Mulcahey, and Colleen Newell.

Madrigal Club

One of the major musical organizations on campus is the Madrigal Club. Under the direction of Miss Lucille Haney, the club and the choir presented the vesper services at Christmas and Easter. Madrigal, in conjunction with the band, presented a Dad's Day program and the annual spring concert in April. Betty Lu Thomas was the president and Ann and Frances McClelland acted as librarians for the year.

Dance Orchestra

The college dance orchestra was organized three years ago to play for the annual Thanksgiving Day tea dance. Interest in dance music and the delight of playing together held the group during the rest of that year. In the fall of 1946 Valeria Berry officially organized the players and their activities included the tea dance and several dances at high schools in this area and a college prom in the Missouri Valley.

Of the original players, five are in this year's junior class. The personnel has been increased to include a baritone sax and violins. Their activities this year have been more varied than before. They were engaged to play for the Greetings' dance, "Snowball", high school proms and a formal dance given at the Youth Center by the Hi-Y sorority of Jacksonville high school. The orchestra made recordings of "Johnson Rag" and "Dancing in the Dark" which will be made available to anyone.

Recreations

The Elizabeth Rearick Trophy Winner

Jean Scammon was the proud recipient of the Elizabeth Rearick Trophy this year in the R. A. Chapel. This trophy was first presented in the spring of 1945. It is presented each year to the senior girl who has shown an active interest in R. A. and displayed good sportsmanship throughout her four years at MacMurray. Jean has exemplified this girl in every way.

The Board of the Recreation Association under the leadership of Betty Jean Harper, president, is made up of the class representatives, town girl's representative, officers of the association, and the sponsor, Miss Carrie Spencer. The Board is in charge of all planned recreation on the campus and provides equipment for individual sports. Every student on the MacMurray campus is a member of the association and is invited to participate in both the team and individual sports which aid in mental and physical development and foster a spirit of sportsmanship and cooperation within the student body.

Recreation Association Council

Under the supervision of the R. A. Board, functions the R. A. Council headed by Anna Rose Murfey, Vice-president of the Board. The Council, which is made up of the sports managers, is appointed by the R. A. Board. It is the duty of the Council to plan and coordinate the various team and individual sports which the association sponsors. During the school year the Board and Council arrange Play Days with other colleges in the area and try to bring outstanding athletes to the campus to give exhibitions.

 Third Row: Sims, Vine, Rosenfelder, Caldwell.

Varsity Hockey

This year's hockey season was under the capable management of Peggy Jenner with the advice of Miss Elizabeth Meyer. The Juniors and Freshmen were co-winners of the inter-class tournament. The climax of the season was the traditional Thanksgiving Day game between Army and Navy. The Juniors and Freshmen kept up the good work in this very exciting game with a score of 1-0. Navy wins again! Miss Frances Beyer, Miss Joan Daker and Miss Fayette Paulson acted as referees for the season.

Varsity Basketball

Basketball got off to an early start this year with the first practices soon after Thanksgiving. The Freshmen nosed out the Sophomores for the title in the inter-class tournament. The Navy team, composed of Juniors and Freshmen, came out on top in a highly contested game with a 27-20 score. The referees were Miss Frances Beyer, Miss Joan Daker and Miss Fayette Paulson. The outstanding players of the Varsity team defeated a Bradley University team and the Army beat Washington University. There was also a game at Principia. "Ike" Gonckowski was manager and Miss Carrie Spencer was adviser.

Fourth Row: Council, Schlitz, Harris, Marland, Krueger, Burgess, Booth, Moedinger, Norris, Blair, Reichman, Will.

Physical Education Club

The Physical Education Club, whose membership is made up of girls who are majoring or minoring in physical education, has as its aim the creation of a better social and academic spirit of cooperation and the fostering of an interest in clean living and worthy use of leisure time within its membership. The club under the direction of Margaret Smith, president; and Miss Rearick, adviser, highlighted its year's activities with the presentation of "Club 13". Patricia Vine and Mary Council were in charge of this annual event. Other officers of the organization were vice-president, Mary Council; and secretary-treasurer, Ruth Huntington.

Third Row: Weller, Frazier, Rewey, Diers, Schmidt, Griffith, Jones, Verstegen, Cooley, Shearer, Norris, Wilcox, Bradley.

Macquatic Club

One of the highly active clubs on "Mac's" campus is the Macquatic Club. Sixteen new members were initiated in the fall on the basis of their swimming ability, their prospects of improvement, and their interest in swimming. In December the club sponsored a swimming meet with Washington University and also a diving exhibition by Miss Anne Ross, holder of nine national diving titles. "Mac" won the meet and four new pool records were set. The medley relay team of Verstegen, Harper and Griffith set a new record. Dorothy Studley set new records for the back crawl, breast stroke and free style. The biggest event of the year was the annual Dad's Day Water Show, "Showboat", under the direction of Peg Smith and Jayne Weller. The club was guided by Frances Price, president; Fay Diers, vice-president; Barbara Griffith, treasurer; Margaret Anne Smith, R. A. representative; Barbara Myers, publicity chairman; and Miss Carrie Spencer, adviser.

First Row: Vogel, Jones, Butler, J. Collins, Skinker.

Second Row: David, Goebel, Miss Greenwalt, Erb, Studley, Miller.

Third Row: Balsdon, Greenberg, Bevirt, Larson, Gonckowski, B. Collins.

Mac Mounties

The Mac Mounties is an organization on campus that sponsors and participates in all horse-back riding events. The club takes part in team shows, inter-collegiate shows, and the annual Mother's Day Show. Club members plan the Gymkhana in which any student may participate. For the second consecutive year, the Mac Mounties won the annual Maryville College horse show and received the high point trophy. Nancy Skinker was high point winner of the show with 575 points. This year Dorothy Goebel was president, Dorothy Studley, vice-president, Virginia Anderson, secretary, Phyllis Larson, treasurer, and Pat Hunt, R. A. Representative.

DEAN HAWKINS AND YVONNE SCHRODER

The Juniors celebrated Mrs. Hawkins' birthday with Sunday table parties.
